PUBLICATION PERMISSION FORM

By signing this release form, each Participant or Participant’s Parent/Legal Guardian (where applicable) hereby assigns, transfers, or otherwise conveys, all rights, titles and interests in and to the Billings Public Library, including without limitation all copyrights and other intellectual property rights therein. Furthermore, signer(s) agree that the Participant’s submitted poem(s) may be presented in any way deemed proper by the Billings Public Library without additional consent or payment to the participant or anyone on the participant’s behalf claiming to have right to such payment.

Examples of how poems may be used:

- Included with an online collection of other poetry (children, teen, or adult) on the Billings Public Library’s official website
- Educational or promotional presentations for any Billings Public Library sponsored programs that may be included in a television or Internet broadcast

There is no time limit on the validity of this release nor is there any geographic specification of where these materials may be distributed. The Participant or the Participant’s Parent/Legal Guardian agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Billings Public Library, its officers, employees and agents from and against any and all claims, action, costs, judgments or damages of any type relating to the use of the story created for the BPL National Poetry Month Celebration Contest.

I have received and read a copy of the official rules and understand that failure to follow these rules may result in disqualification of my entry.
